Awake the Giant!

We hope you are keeping well.

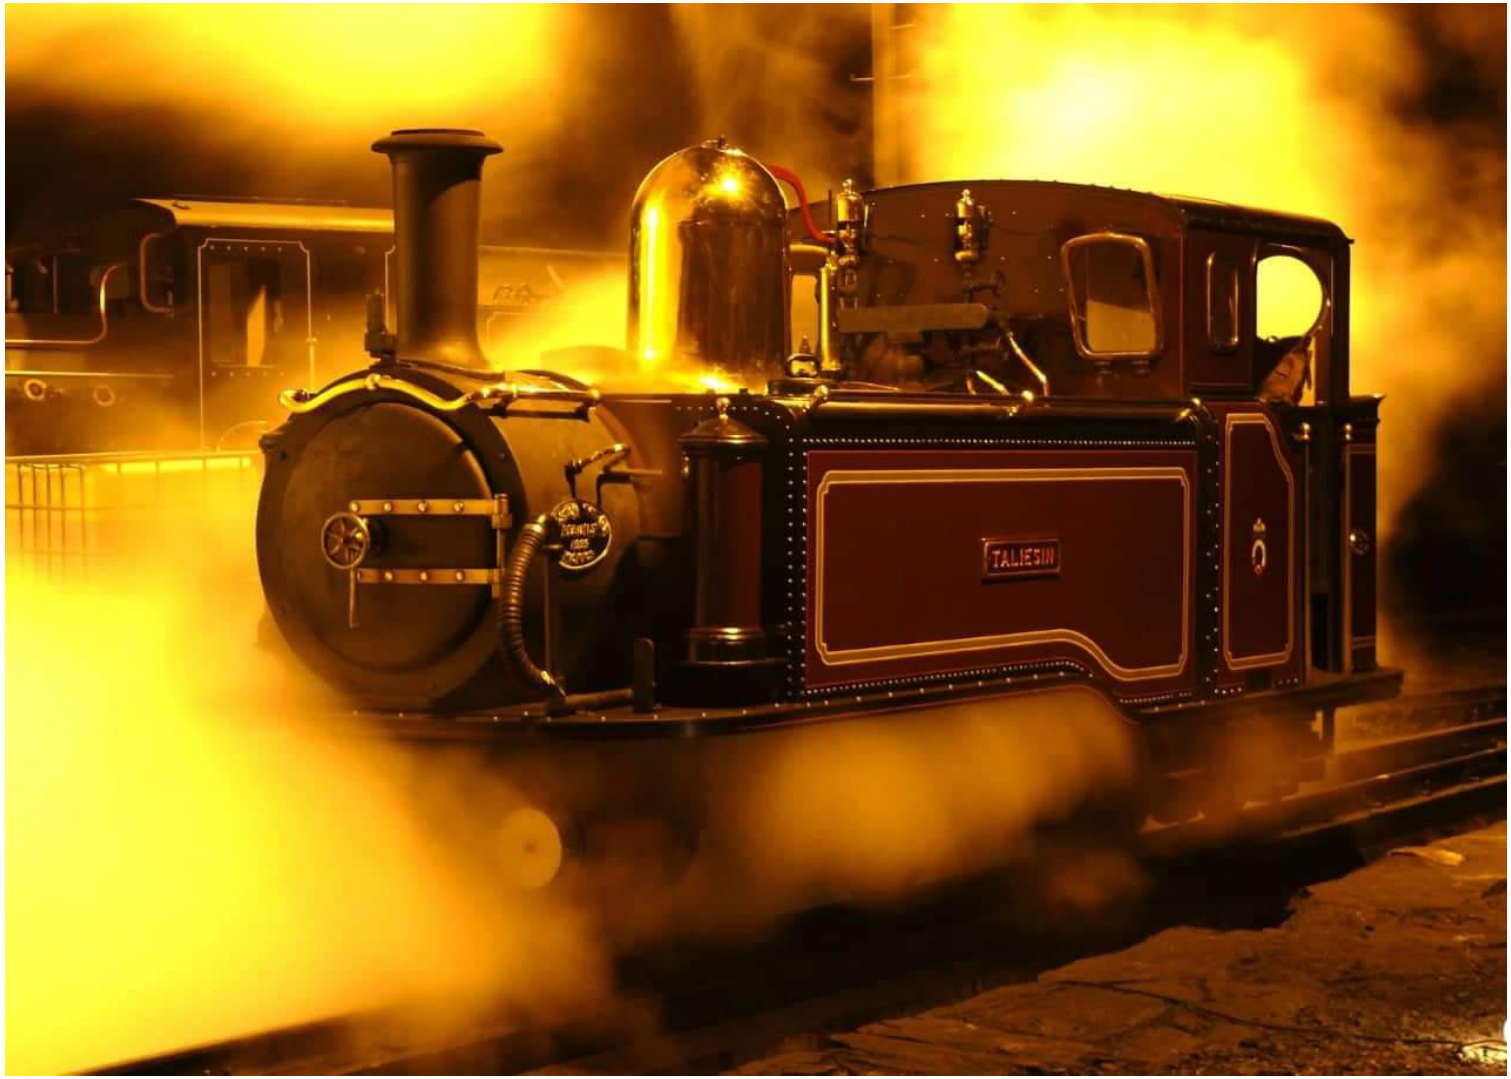
Recently, the Awake the Giant team have organised and ran their first and inaugural photo competition. We had a great response and raised a large amount of interest in the Bluebell railway and 92240. The competition featured two categories of: the best photo of; the Bluebell railway and Preserved steam.

A massive congratulations to:

Winners:

Neil Munro-Thomson with their photo of the three SECR locomotives, triple heading on a Branch Line Gala.

Adrian Smith with their photo of ‘Taliesen’ at Boston Lodge on the Ffestiniog Railway.



Runners up:

Dave Jones with their photo of 92212 departing Sheffield Park.

Clifford Palmer with their photo of the Flying Scotsman on the locomotive's visit to the railway.

Congratulations to all for taking part.

If you wish to help with fundraising or on a practical side with 92240, please contact Andy Taylor andy.taylor@bluebell-railway.com
