MARATHON FOR THE MAUNSELL

Hi, I'm Dave Clarke, a volunteer in the Bluebell's Carriage and Wagon Department. Having conquered London in 2010, I'm taking my running shoes to Edinburgh on 22nd May 2011 to run the Edinburgh Marathon (all 26 miles 385 yards of it) as part of the fundraising for the restoration of the Bluebell Railway's SR Maunsell Restaurant Car No. 7864. Last year I raised over £3000 and I'd love to beat that this year!

Built at Eastleigh in 1932, No. 7864 is the last surviving Southern Railway catering vehicle. It was finally withdrawn by BR in 1962 when it was purchased by the Bluebell. It is currently in extremely poor condition, and requires an estimated £100,000 of work before it can be operational again. Funds to support this project have been raised gradually over the last decade, with around 20% of the required funding now raised; the prospect of starting work on the carriage in the near future means that the fund raising effort is now being stepped up a gear. Any support you can give towards its restoration will be gratefully received.

If you are a UK Taxpayer, your sponsorship will go further if you me through Gift Aid via the Bluebell Railway Trust. To do this, please complete and return the Gift Aid and donation form on the left. If you are sponsoring me via the Bluebell Railway Trust, please make your cheque payable to Bluebell Railway Trust. If you are not a UK Taxpayer, please make your cheque payable to Maunsell 7864 Group and return it together with the form below.

All cheques and forms should be sent to:

Deborah Salmon, Maunsell 7864 Group Treasurer,
c/o Carriage and Wagon Department, Bluebell Railway,
Horsted Keynes Station, West Sussex RH17 7BB
