

No. 96 Normandy

A couple of pictures showing the reusing of a rear section of the old cab being overhauled to form part of the new full cab rear section together with the lower rear section already in place. The other picture shows progress on the repainting of the frames and the erection of the brake rigging.

The rear section of cab which is be reused.

Brake rigging being erected.