

9th March 2026

No. 96 Normandy

The new cab floor is in place and work is underway to renew all the cab sheet metalwork, starting with the rear section. We hope to rebuilt the full cab as on the photograph below to give improved footplate crew protection in the usual British weather.

Photo: © John Fry

The lower rear back cab plate being cut out.

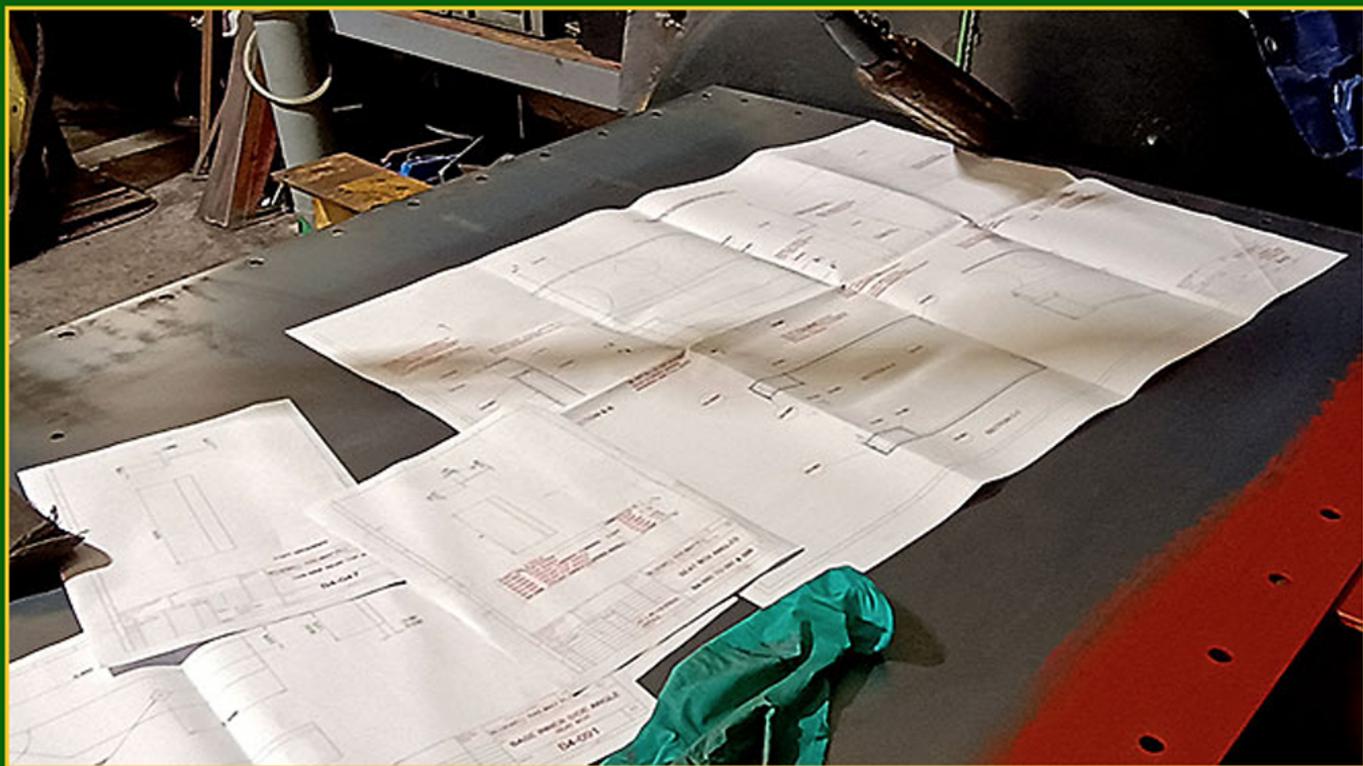

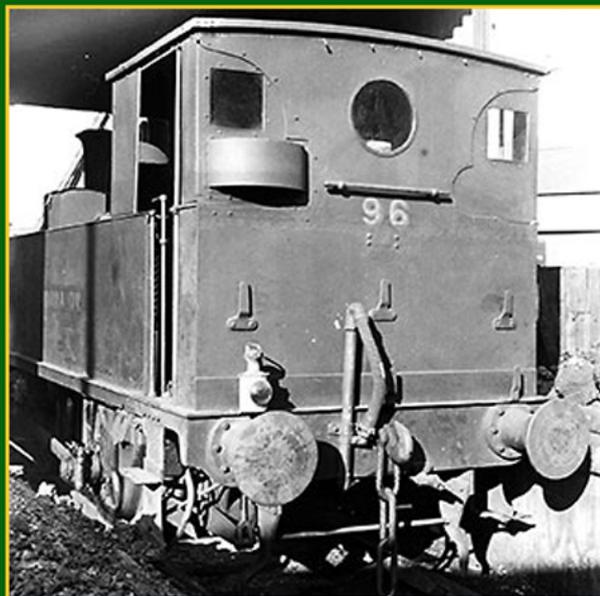

Photo: © John Fry

The drawings for the enclosed cab.

Photo: © John Fry

The enclosed cab that No. 96 will have.

Photo: © John Fry

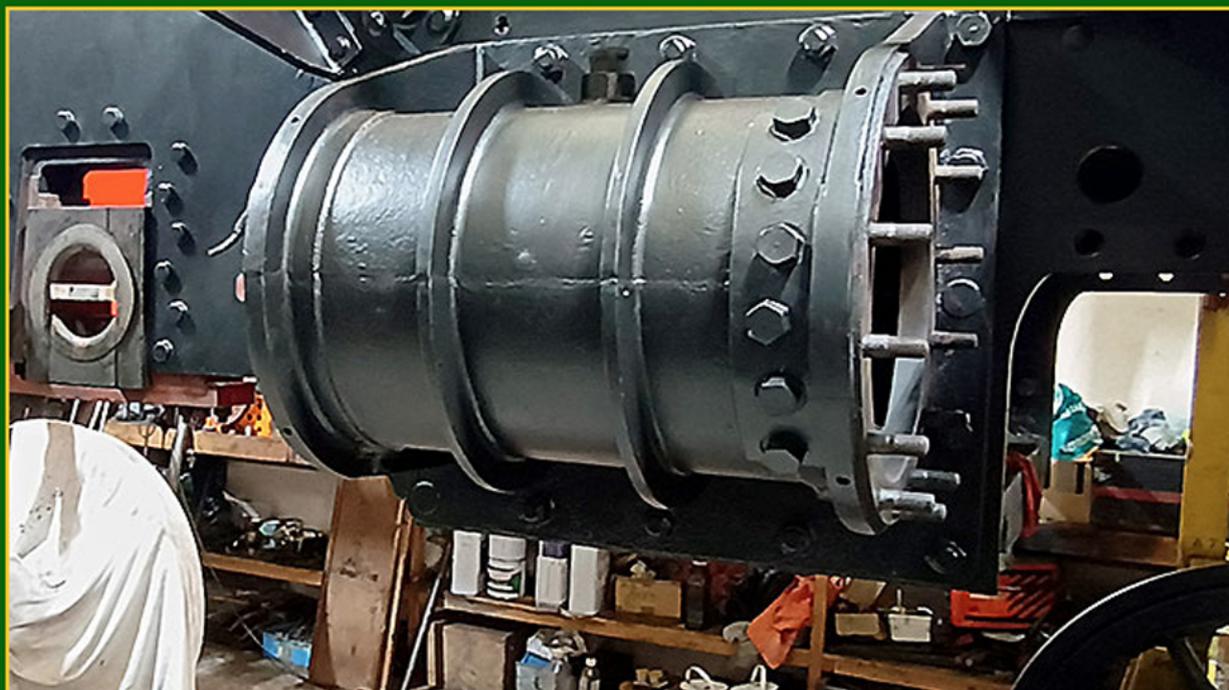

The open cab it has run with recently.

Photo: © John Fry

The lower cab plate in place.

Photo: © John Fry

The right hand cylinder block cleaned and painted.