Built in 1932 as a sumptuous 24-seat Kitchen Diner, for at-seat dining service on principal express trains.

Withdrawn from service during World War II.

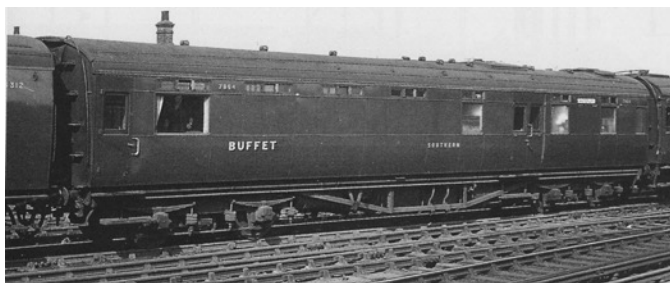

1947: modified as buffet car with only 8 seats.

1951: on Bournemouth-Newcastle services.

1962: static restaurant at Sheffield Park Station.

1981-2000 gradually deteriorated in open storage (now stored under tarpaulin).

It is of significant national importance as the only surviving Southern Railway catering vehicle.

As can be seen from these photos, the restoration to original condition will be a major challenge, but we have a team of volunteers with the skill and track record to tackle the challenge, and a potential space in the workshop programme to tackle the project starting in 1-2 years' time, once Hastings-line Maunsell Brake No.3687 has been completed.

Building on the Maunsell carriages we already have in service, and this Dining Saloon, we then plan to add further overhauled carriages to form a complete train of SR 1920s/30s' Maunsell coaches.

The restoration of the Bluebell Railway's Maunsell Restaurant Car/Dining Saloon No.7864 has long been an aim of Bluebell C&W volunteers, and this fund is aiming to raise at least £100,000 required to cover the costs of the materials. We are over 90% of the way to that target, there is a potential slot in the workshop, and volunteers who are keen to do the work, once other projects have been completed.

Using H M Revenue & Customs' Gift Aid scheme increases the value of your donation by 25% and, where donors pay income tax at higher rates, they can get tax relief on their donations.
