

David Burch appointed as Finance Director

David Burch has been appointed to the post of Finance Director.

David is an Associate member of the Chartered Institute of Management Accountants and is currently Head of Finance and Operations for the Institute and Faculty of Actuaries.

David has a life-long interest in railways and has been a member of the Bluebell Railway for many years visiting with his family and on his own for our special events.

David lives in West Wickham and outside work he is also the Honorary Treasurer and Board Trustee of PACEY, an early years charity based in Bromley, as well as being a member of his local Rotary Club.

David said: "I am delighted to join the Board of the Bluebell Railway as Finance Director and use my skills as an accountant to help the railway remain one of the premier steam railways in the UK. I have always been interested in trains and railways, in particular the history behind them, which is something the Bluebell Railway does well."

He added: "I look forward to working with the Board and all those connected with this wonderful railway."

Christopher Hunford, interim Plc Chairman

12 December 2019