

Not an update – W/c 19 August 2023

Hi everyone. So there won't be a weekly update this week as I have been working on the Flying Scotsman Event. As has everyone and I haven't had time to write one. We have all been working flat out and thank you to everyone who has helped out. So far so good. A brilliant event.

Neil Glaskin and I are going to do a joint update next week detailing all that has gone on in the past two weeks.

What I can say is ... Wow. Incredible and you are all awesome.
